

Eleonora Muzzupappa

1. Personal details

Nationality: Italian

Address:

Contacts:

Email:

2. Research interests

International financial regulation; Competition and stability in the banking industry; CEO compensation and migration; Supervisory institutions policies; Measurement and role of regulatory capital in determining competition in the banking industry.

3. Education

2016-: Ph.D. Banking and Finance, King's Business School London. Dissertation title: Regulation, Competition and Adjustment Dynamics. Supervisor: Prof. George Kapetanios. The thesis aims at detecting the role that international financial regulation has in shaping competition dynamics in the banking sector and its impact to the speed of adjustment of the economy toward the equilibrium. I adapt the structural model of baking to out-of-equilibrium situation. The framework allows to study interesting phenomena across transitional and/or developing economies.

2012-2015: D.Phil. Economics and Management. SEAM, University of Messina, Italy. Dissertation title: "Essays on CEO Compensation and Banking Competition". Supervisor: Dr. Dario Maimone Ansaldo Patti. The thesis studies the role of the institutional environment in different economies in designing CEOs compensation and in shaping competitive dynamics in the banking sector. Modules: Mathematics for Economics and Finance (70%); Advanced Econometrics (88%), Advanced Macroeconomics (87%), Advanced Microeconomics (88%), Management (86%).

2013-2015: M.A. by Research in Law (Part-Time). School of Law, Queen Mary University of London. Dissertation title: "The Impact of Regulatory Capital Requirements on the Degree of Competition among the Banking Industry. UK and Germany: a Comparative Analysis" Supervisor: Prof. Rodrigo Olivares-Caminal. Module: Theory and Method in Legal Scholarship. Grade: Distinction (best student in the cohort).

2012-2013: M.Sc. in Law and Finance. Joint Program from the Centre for Commercial Law Studies and the School of Economics and Finance, Queen Mary University of London. Dissertation: "The impact of the Basel II Accords on the degree of competition in the banking industry in the UK". Modules: Legal Aspects of International Finance; Regulations of Financial Markets; Business Finance; Financial Derivatives; Quantitative Methods for Finance (prize for the best empirical project). Grade: Merit.

2005-2011: B.Sc. in Law. Department of Law. University of Messina, Italy. Grade: First. Main Modules: Criminal Law, Civil Law, Commercial Law, International Law, Torts Law, Comparative Civil and Public Law, Comparative Criminal Law, Public Economics. The thesis deals with the institute of punitive damages and class actions and the how the Italian legal system deals with these institutions, given that are currently absent. Grade: 110/110.

4. Research experience

2015-2016: Visiting Research Fellow. Centre for Commercial and Law Studies, Queen Mary University of London, UK. Research on "CEO Compensation and Institutional Mechanism: Evidence from Germany and the United Kingdom" The research studies the role of the institutional environment in different economies in designing CEOs compensation, and protecting the competitive capabilities of the firm by shaping their incentive to migrate.

5. Work experience

2017-Deputy Director MSc Banking and Finance. School of Management and Business, King's Business School London.

2017-Lecturer. Banking and Finance. School of Management and Business, King's Business School London.

2015-2017 Teaching Assistant. Quantitative Method for Finance; Principals of Economics King's Business School London; Introduction to Accounting, School of Business and Management, Queen Mary University of London.

2014-2015: Teaching Assistant. M.Sc. Banking and Finance, School of Economics and Finance, University of Messina, Italy. Modules taught: Quantitative Methods for Finance; Banking Regulation.

2011-2012: Teaching Assistant. Applied Risk Management; Financial Statements; Research Projects, School of Economics and Finance, Queen Mary University of London.

2001-2011: Legal Assistant. Studio Legale Giuseppe Morelli, Vibo Valentia, Italy. Role: Assist layers in preparing documents to be submitted to the Court; liaise with clients for payroll invoices; assist layers during audits and trials.

5. Research output

Post-crisis Banking Structural Reforms and Financial Stability. Submitted.

Basel-driven Incentives in Alternative Financial Systems: A Comparative Analysis of Germany and the UK. Submitted.

Institutional Environments and the Compensation for the CEO position: a Comparative Study of Germany and the UK.

6. Conferences

2018: Regulation and competition in the banking industry: Evidence from Germany and the UK. 10th Global Conference in Amsterdam. Forum for Economists International.

2017: Stability-oriented regulation: Cui prodest? Doctoral Research Symposium, King's Business School London.

2016: The impact of Basel I and Basel II on the degree of Competition in the Banking industry. The 15th INFINITI Conference on International Finance, "Finance now - enhancing stability or sowing the seeds of the next crisis?" Trinity College Dublin, Ireland.

2015: Bank Concentration and Systemic Crisis. Banking Law Symposium, "Multinational Banking: Capturing the Benefits and Avoiding the Pitfalls". Centre for Commercial Law Studies (CCLS) Queen Mary University of London, UK.

7. Additional skills

IT: MS Office. Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook, PC Give, Stata, Python, Matlab, GAUSS, SPSS; Eviews. Languages: Italian (Native), English (Fluent), Spanish (Basic).

8. Referees

Prof. George Kapetanios,
Head of Group, M.Sc. Banking and Finance,
King's Business School,
Bush House, 30 Aldwych, WC2B 4BG,
London, UK.
Tel.: +44 (0) 20 7848 3151
Email: george.kapetanios@kcl.ac.uk

Prof. Rodrigo Olivares-Caminal,
Professor in Banking and Finance Law,
CCLS, Queen Mary University of London
67-69 Lincoln's Inn Fields London
WC2A 3JB, UK
Tel.: +44 (0) 20 7882 8096
Email: r.olivares-caminal@qmul.ac.uk