Subject: Erasmus+ – Higher Education Mobility for Teaching

Dear Colleagues,

I am honored to inform you that Dr. Fülöp and Prof. Sipos, permanent staff at the University of Medicine and Pharmacy of Tîrgu Mureş – Romania, are coming to the University of Messina within the Erasmus+ Mobility programme for teaching from May 21st to May 25th 2018.

During this period, they will give a 10-hours course on subjects related to Toxicology and Pharmaceutical Tecnology. However, as you may see from the teaching program which follow, the lectures may be of interest for a broader audience, e.g. spanning to Supramolecular Chemistry to Nanotechnology.

Hence, I am happy to invite you and your students to participate to this activity, whose details may be found below. Your participation will be also appreciated in view of exchanging experiences on pedagogical methods and of creating relationships between their Institution and ours which, after all, is the scope of the Erasmus+ Mobility Programme.

Sincerely,
Giovanna De Luca
