Official conversion table for foreign exam grading systems

Candidates who have completed degree exams in a foreign university can dispose of this formula for converting their grades:

$$\text{Voto} = \frac{V - V_{\min}}{V_{\max} - V_{\min}} \cdot (I_{\max} - I_{\min}) + I_{\min}$$

Voto = grade in the Italian system

V = grade to convert

V_{min} = minimum grade for passing in the university of origin

V_{max} = maximum grade in the university of origin

I_{min} = minimum grade for passing in Italian universities (= 18)

I_{max} = maximum grade in Italian universities (= 30)

For the evaluation based on an alphabetical scale, reference is made as follows:

Valutazione da convertire	Voto
A	30
B	28
C	26
D	23
E	18

Valutazione da convertire = grade to convert

Voto = grade in the Italian system
