We do offer perpetual access to content published during the term (subscribed period of time) of an active Site License. However, while a Site License is active, users will have access to content from 1998 coming forward. Please also note that Institutional Print can be added to a Site License order at the deeply discounted price (DDP) of $503US per title.

We are available for any questions you may have. We look forward to hearing from you.

Very best regards,

Barbara Valcelli
